The purpose of the Guild of Rocking Horse Makers is to bring together those people who have practical experience of this delightful craft, to exchange ideas & information, & to promote the craft of rocking horse making. Membership is open to anyone, amateur or professional, who have actually made a Rocking Horse, which may be of any size, style or design & in any material, but which must have been substantially made & finished by you, the applicant. Other membership benefits include:

- A specially designed full colour Certificate of Achievement and Membership (signed by Guild President Anthony Dew), and a free enamel lapel badge.
- New members are entered on the Roll of Guild Membership.
- Preferential discounts (including 5% off anything purchased from The Rocking Horse Shop) on products, books, garments, tools & equipment. Gordon's Wood Crafts will also extend a 5% discount to guild members on products they carry.
- Discount on Rocking Horse Insurance (UK only), plus other offers of interest to members.
- Members are invited to special Guild events (including an Annual Guild Dinner in January and the free Guild Barbecue in September.
- Regular Newsletters mailed out to Guild Members, & also posted on-line.
- The Guild website Chat Room is open to members - access via a special password.

Please send us photographs of your rocking horse(s) - preferably with rider and/or yourself, & tell us all about it! We shall be pleased to hear about anything which you can tell us that may be of interest - about yourself & your Rocking Horse making experiences (& other projects)*.

The GUILD of ROCKING HORSE MAKERS - Membership Fees
